EAST COAST LUMBER AND SUPPLY CO. Send watches for repairs to W.M. Woodward, DeLand, Fla. Work guaranteed.

Mr. Wade H. Jones returned the first of the week from a trip to Sanford and DeLand. Judge Jones made a trip to Sanford last week to hold court chambers in that city for the convenience of attorneys from the gulf coast. Mr. O'Neal, of Augusta, Ga., arrived here this week and may probably accept here Saturday night. Mr. Geo. Adams, a situation here with the East Coast of West Palm Beach, was here to open Lumber and Supply company. Contractor P. J. Hall recently made a living at Orange Springs, in Marion county, returning home Saturday.

It is stated that Hon. H. E. Day has the refusal of several positions considerably more lucrative than that of railroad commissioner. His friends throughout the state will be glad to learn of this.

A letter just received from Mr. J. Haggerty, who is now stopping at Lithia Springs, Ga., on his way to this place, says that he has met Capt. Pritchard several times since arriving there, who looks well and says he is feeling well, and that the captain leaves for home to-day, Fri-

Mr. Pierre Titus returned from his trip to St. Louis Saturday. His two oldest children returned with him and are now staying with Mrs. Hopkins, but he expects to send them to the convent at Mandarin. Mrs. Martin, the grandmother, in St. Louis takes charge of the baby and the little girl.

"Fruitine," a combination of pure Wilson & Son. Fruit Juices.

The merry-go-round has struck Titusville again. This time it is Gonzales' steam riding gallery, which arrived here Saturday night from West Palm Beach, and is located on the Lund property. It required all day Monday and the greater part of Tuesday to set up things comete. A tent is used so as to provide ainst inclement weather.

entleman, who has spent this sumorganizing tourist parties in the of Boston, for trips through Canwho is now on his way to Flortapline winter, stated recently to the Atlandio ournal that already in Boston and other large cities of New England some 20,000 people have made arrangements with the tourist companies for trips through Florida and to Cuba this

A concert and dance will be given in the opera house next Thursday evening, the 25th inst., music by Indian River band. The concert will be from 8:30 to 10 o'clock, dancing to follow until midnight. Also refreshments will be on sale, consisting of cake and ice cream. The concert, etc., is given as a benefit to the Indian River band, which has an expense account or indebtedness to be met, and we hope that everyoue will attend and help the boys along.

In the case of Sophia J. Lanier vs. H Clay Stanford upon the final hearing at Titusville on Sept. 9th, Judge Minor S. Jones decided the case in favor of the complainant. The case arose over the appointment of Mr. Stanford by Judge Johnston, county judge of Osceola county, as guardian of Nellie Morgan, one of E. by giving a reception to the young peo-O. Morgan's grandchildren, over a year ple of this place, nearly all of whom were til a late hour. ago. Judge A. E. Pooser, county judge present. of DeSoto county, disputed the jurisdiction of his Osceola colleague and appointed Mrs. Lanier, the child's mother, guardian. Judge Jones' decree denies the jurisdiction of the Osceola probate court, upon the ground that the infant was not a resident of that county. The complainant was represented by Treadwell & Stringer, of Arcadia, and the defendant by P. A. Vans Agnew, of Kissimmee.
